

Man Shot at Las Cruces.

There are two rendezvous in the back portion of town, one in the upper end and one near this office where a party of drunken, unruly men meet and make night hideous by their howls and firing of pistols. Sunday night was made dreadful by this crowd who kept up a constant firing for four or five hours which resulted in the killing of a young man named Jose Antonio Garcia, which put an end to their frolic. Christobal Barla is the man who did the killing and on Monday morning he gave himself up to justice Van Latten and said that he had killed Garcia "accidentally." We are informed that the pistol belonged to Garcia, and that Barla took it from him in a friendly way and said, "may I fire off one shot." Garcia consented and Barla fired, the ball passing through Garcia's head. We won't vouch for the truth of this statement, but we can produce our authority if required. Barla, we are informed, is at large and that the matter has not been investigated. Let the Grand Jury take this matter in hand and sift it out if possible.—Thirty-four.

Kerret.

LAS VEGAS, Sept. 15th, 1880.
FRIEND KOGGLER.

Being very poles of my honor, I beg to advise you the San Miguel Town Site company elected, on last Monday, among its directors, your humble servant.

JOSEPH ROSENWALD.

Western Star Lodge of I. O. G. T.

There will be a sociable of the above order given to-morrow night at the Presbyterian school room, in rear of the church. All are cordially invited to attend. A good time is anticipated.

—Joy reigns throughout Las Vegas! Along the bold Rockies from peak to peak is carried the good news. The long expected heir to the throne of Spain has arrived. It is a girl, weight, 6 lbs., 3 1/4 ounces; red hair; nose, pug; the pride of the kingdom. How is the race degenerating! The infant princess was given a modern name, Maria Mercedes Isabella. Queen Isabella acted as sponsor and all the high State functionaries and ambassadors were present. The king feigned the greatest satisfaction, while in his secret heart he was wrath and sore vexed because it wasn't a boy. It is the same the world over. May your afflictions never be greater than little ones,—boys or girls.

—The New Mexican seems to be in a muddle and appears to be unable to solve the question, why the railroad company is building so largely at Las Vegas, and is also putting up engine houses etc., at Wallace, and finally sums up by saying that, "It looks as if Las Vegas was about to lose the headquarters." This is not a difficult matter to clear up. Las Vegas is to be the end of one of the principle divisions of the road. The offices of the entire road from Pueblo to Mexico are to be here, while Wallace, San Marcial, etc., are simply to be the termini of the working divisions of the road. We hope the New Mexican will see the point.

—There is a boarder at the Exchange, a good fellow too, who has such an appetite that he walks just as easy as possible from his place of business to the dining room for fear of increasing it, and he only has to walk from the bank. We won't publish his name for fear of offending him.

GAZETILLA.

Personal and General, Gathered From Quarters of the City and Vicinity.

—May Hays is in town.
—A perfect night last night.
—Travel on the road is now a little light.
—There will be an oyster supper in town soon.
—Col. Lockhart went to Santa Fe yesterday on business.
—The news from Maine looks equally for the Republicans.
—Why don't the projectors of the street railway brace up and proceed.
—Though no frost has yet fallen, the weather begins to feel fall like.
—Mr. Hopper, representing the St. Louis Times, went east on yesterday's train.

—Geo. Croxford, the harness maker has moved to Santa Fe with his wife.
—A gas company should be organized to furnish lights for the streets and town.

—John Mink, of Anton Chico and a leading citizen of the county is in the city.

—"Oh! that watermillion," is what Rev. Calfee now says after his recent severe illness.

—Rev. Thos. Harwood is expected to assist at the service in the M. E. church on next Sunday.

—Rev. Sanford, of the Episcopal church of this place, returned from Albuquerque yesterday.

—Bernalillo with its shady groves, peach orchards and vineyards is one of the nicest little cities along the road.

—A. J. Crawford has on exhibition a nice bunch of California grapes which will tip the scales at three pounds.

—Juan Ortiz, in the employ of Browne & Manzanares, met with a painful accident, while lifting a box yesterday.

—An interesting discussion among teachers and others of the M. E. Sunday school took place at the parsonage on evening before last.

—Work on the depot has been commenced. It will be made considerably longer than it is and will be raised to a two story building.

—Mr. W. D. Carlisle, a prominent attorney of Kansas City and formerly of West Virginia, son of Senator Carlisle of that State, is in the city.

—Messrs. T. Romero & Son are hauling the dirt from the excavation of their new building to the east end of the bridge. It is a good thing.

—A. J. Calhoun, Ocate; G. A. Teagarden, Thomas, J. Ticer, St. Louis; M. Hayes, Apache Springs, are registered at the National Hotel.

—Mrs. Jane desires all the small children belonging to the M. E. Sunday school to meet her at the church for practice on Saturday at 3 o'clock p. m.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kelly will start to-day for their future home in Albuquerque. The well wishes of many friends attend them on their voyage of life.

—Mr. Jacob Bloch, of Ocate, has purchased property on the east side and will soon remove here with a general store of merchandise. Thus business centres at Vegas.

—Mr. Gillies returned to Vegas yesterday. As soon as they can get that immense pile of clothing marked, we expect to see some breeches on the street with sharp creases in the legs.

—The illustrations of Las Vegas in the Western Magazine look as much like the landscapes as a cabbage-head does a lily. The magazine is an advertising scheme of a kind peculiar to itself.

—The Assyrians who reclined on the terraced roofs of the houses of Babylon and watched the stars trace their circles across the sky, never witnessed a more beautiful evening than that of last night.

—"Two dollars and seventy-five out on dice, five out on highball, one dollar to the confounded police force."

—A good days business, guess I'll go home and see if the old lady has supper ready."

—Marcellino & Boffa, of the Las Vegas orchestra, have opened a neat little grocery on Railroad Avenue. They have a nice place and will soon have on hand a splendid supply of fancy goods.

—Chas. Hubbs, editor of the Kinsey Republican, and little daughter went east to Kansas yesterday. Mr. Hubbs is interested in mines in the White Oaks, as also in the Cerrillos. He will return in November to see after the further development of his mines.

—Mr. D. P. Gillies, one of the firm of Gardner & Gillies, arrived yesterday. He has been east about three months and is just now getting back to business again. He says he feels almost like a tenderfoot.

—The morning, noon and evening services of the ismaelites of this city were held yesterday at the Masonic Hall. The co-religionists of both towns attended. Messrs. Dubrino and Harry Jaffa officiated.

—The good crop of hay this year is going to be used by our neighbors during the coming winter instead of corn, which is scarce around here. Everybody is putting up hay.—Red River Chronicle.

—Go upon the bluffs east of Vegas look upon the two towns if you desire to take in at one view the numerous evidences of improvement and industries of as wide awake community as ever existed.

—Mrs. J. J. Kelley lost a valuable diamond ring Tuesday evening. It will send a beam of sunshine through the new made home if the finder will return the same. See advertisement in another column.

—Very few men know how to build a house so as to incur the least risk of fire. They will lay all their plans for security and then put on a finishing touch or two which will run up their insurance rate one hundred per cent.

—C. B. Scott, Hot Springs; Obidiah Dudock, M. D.; W. T. Handy, New Placers; E. P. Rice, Chicago; J. J. Duquesne, Kansas City; Thos. G. Ticer, St. Louis; Chas. Moss, Denver; are registered at the St. Nicholas hotel.

—Graben, 3; Karpfen 862, II, Prag., Osterich, is the address to which Dave Winternitz wants his GAZETTE hereafter addressed. He starts for Europe to-day to be gone several months. He will talk Bohemian by the time he gets back.

—J. H. Phillips, the new fruit man, at A. M. James' old stand, in new town, has a complete cider mill and is making pure apple cider, which he sells by the glass or gallon. The public will do well to call and test this cider as it is fresh and sweet.

—A private letter just received by Mr. A. A. Barnes, of this city from the White Oaks states that in the last month the number of houses there has doubled, and mentioned other characteristics of a general boom. The reports from the Nogals and Jicarillas are very encouraging.

—James G. Barney, Socorro; Willie Stecker, Ocate; J. Reynolds and family, Mesilla; H. Friedman, Leavenworth, Kansas; W. G. Clark, Boston; D. P. Gillies; H. L. Dunlap, Topeka; H. A. Wise, Leavenworth; Jas. Bourke, A. & P. railroad, are registered at the Summer house.

Contractor Reynolds and son, of Ft. Elliott, passed down on Tuesday, on a pay and inspection tour from Las Vegas to Vinita, as also to make the necessary arrangements for curtailing the stock, since a tri-weekly mail is now running over his line here.—Red River Chronicle

—U. S. Marshall, Joplin, passed through this city yesterday on his way to Little Rock, Arkansas. He brought the stage robber Witten up from Mesilla and turned him over to the authorities at Santa Fe. Witten has received sentence of two and a half years in the penitentiary.

—Rev. Calfee who had taken quite ill on night before last, received a telegram from Watrous, on yesterday, informing him that his service would be needed there to-day to solemnize the holy rite of marriage. The contracting parties are natives and converts to the protestant faith.

—Las Vegas is to be the end of one of the principal divisions of the A. T. & S. F. railroad. There will be smaller divisions at intermediate points, but this is to be one of the main points. Pueblo is one; then Las Vegas and the other will be near the line between this territory and old Mexico.

—Mr. A. J. Calhoun, of Ocate, is in the city. He has a couple of peculiar pets at home, a rattlesnake and a horned toad. Both have learned to know him, and he can handle them at will. Mr. C. possesses wonderful ability to tame vicious horses or wild animals, and bring them in subjection to his will, as he has demonstrated.

—A kerosene lamp exploded last night in the press room while working off the inside. The burning fluid spread under the press in a moment and she flamed up in so gorgeous a manner as to make the prospect for this issue look dim. But fortunately, the colored aquarius had left us a barrel of water which active hands speedily cast upon the devouring flames and crushed at once the incipient conflagration. But she loomed up in the start, fearfully, and no mistake.

—One of the telegrams from Maine announces that some money has been expended in the election just past. We think this must be a false report, such things never happen at such times, nevertheless, on the contrary, we print the telegram entire for fear an important item of news may be withheld from our readers.

—On Monday next the September term of the court in this city will be commenced. The court will continue in session for only four days the legislature having fixed the limit of the term at that length of time. No business of magnitude will be transacted probably, as the term is too short to allow much work to be done.—New Mexican.

—Mr. T. F. Chapman has sent in his resignation as postmaster. Mr. J. N. Furlong yesterday circulated a petition to be appointed postmaster to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Chapman and received the signatures of all the leading business men of the city. He will make an efficient postmaster and we apprehend will give perfect satisfaction.

—Mr. Layman, an east side carpenter, will break ground this morning, preparatory to the erection of a three room residence for Mrs. Cavanaugh, who has rented her house, expecting to remove to Fort Bliss, where her husband has a government contract in stonework. Mrs. C. not liking the description of Fort Bliss and its surroundings, as given by her husband, concluded to remain in Las Vegas.

In our gents furnishing goods department which is a new feature, we keep as complete a stock as can be found in any city.
